

Contents

Reclaiming Catholic History: Series Introduction	ix
Chronology of The Church and the Age of Enlightenment (1648–1848)	xiii
Map	xviii
Introduction	xxi
Chapter 1: The Thirty Years' War and Its Aftermath	1
Up Close and Personal: St. Vincent de Paul (1581–1660)	16
You Be the Judge: Was the Thirty Years' War fought over religion or politics?	19
Chapter 2: What Is the Enlightenment?	23
Up Close and Personal: St. Marie of the Incarnation (1599–1672)	46
You Be the Judge: Was the Enlightenment project heretical?	51
Chapter 3: The Religious Enlightenment	55
Up Close and Personal: St. Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647–1690)	71
You Be the Judge: Should you take Pascal's wager?	76
Chapter 4: The Enlightenment in the Tradition of European Renewal Movements	79
Up Close and Personal: Queen Christina of Sweden (1626–1689)	99
You Be the Judge: Are the arts mirrors or shapers of society?	103
Chapter 5: The New Politics of the Enlightenment	107
Up Close and Personal: I Napoletani : Giambattista Vico (1668–1744) and St. Alphonsus Liguori (1696–1787)	120

You Be the Judge: Is the social contract the best way to view the human person and human relations?	133
Chapter 6: The Enlightenment in Action: The American and French Revolutions	139
Up Close and Personal: Eroica : A Portrait of Ludwig van Beethoven (1770–1827)	166
You Be the Judge: Was the American Revolution an enlightened or a conservative revolution?	175
Conclusion	179
Notes	181
Index	187