

Contents

Reclaiming Catholic History: Series Introduction	xi
Chronology of The Church and the Age of Reformations (1350–1650)	xv
Map	xx
Introduction	xxiii
Chapter 1: Reform in the Late Middle Ages	1
Up Close and Personal: St. Catherine of Genoa	6
You Be the Judge: Didn't the Inquisition kill and torture people because of their faith?	11
Up Close and Personal: St. Philip Neri	16
Up Close and Personal: The Papacy in Scripture and the Church Fathers	22
Chapter 2: Protestants	31
You Be the Judge: Didn't the Catholic Church make up which books were in the Bible during the Council of Trent?	46
You Be the Judge: Don't Catholics pray to the saints instead of Christ?	64
You Be the Judge: Didn't the Church prohibit Catholics from reading the Bible?	68
Up Close and Personal: St. Thomas More	70
You Be the Judge: Should Pope Pius V have excommunicated Elizabeth I of England?	77

Chapter 3: Catholics	81
Up Close and Personal: Reforming Religious Orders before the Council of Trent	82
Up Close and Personal: St. Teresa of Ávila	84
Up Close and Personal: St. Ignatius	99
You Be the Judge: Did the Church sell forgiveness of sins?	106
Up Close and Personal: Pope St. Pius V	110
Up Close and Personal: St. Charles Borromeo	112
Chapter 4: Consequences	127
Up Close and Personal: St. Francis de Sales	139
Conclusion	143
Notes	144
Bibliography	152
Index	158