

Contents

Reclaiming Catholic History: Series Introduction	xi
Chronology of The Church and the Middle Ages (1000–1378)	xv
Map	xviii–xix
Introduction: What’s in a Name?	xxi
Chapter 1: Medieval Man in a Medieval World	1
Up Close and Personal: Abbot Suger of St. Denis	8
You Be the Judge: Were serfs slaves?	14
Chapter 2: The Papal Reform Movement Begins	17
Up Close and Personal: St. Peter Damian	22
You Be the Judge: Were popes chosen by the people?	27
Chapter 3: The Great Schism and Norman Conquest	29
Up Close and Personal: St. Bruno of Cologne	35
You Be the Judge: Is the filioque an unauthorized addition to the Creed?	39
Chapter 4: The Investiture Controversy	41
Up Close and Personal: Matilda of Tuscany	43
You Be the Judge: Did the Catholic Church mandate celibacy in the Middle Ages in order to acquire land and wealth from the clergy?	49
Chapter 5: The Crusading Movement: Part 1	51
Up Close and Personal: Godfrey de Bouillon	56
You Be the Judge: Were crusaders motivated by greed and land?	69

Chapter 6: The Crusading Movement: Part 2	77
Up Close and Personal: Jean de Joinville	82
You Be the Judge: Did Pope St. John Paul II apologize for the Fourth Crusade?	93
Chapter 7: Crisis in England and the Beggar Monks	103
Up Close and Personal: St. Anthony of Padua	107
You Be the Judge: Was St. Francis a radical lover of animals and flowers?	115
Chapter 8: Medieval Inquisitors and Scholars	117
Up Close and Personal: Bernard Gui	119
You Be the Judge: Were millions of people tortured and killed by the Inquisition?	131
Chapter 9: Trouble in the Papacy	133
Up Close and Personal: St. Bridget of Sweden	138
You Be the Judge: Did the Church blame the Black Death on the Jews?	143
Acknowledgments	149
Notes	151
For Further Reading	163
Index	165