

CONTENTS

Introduction.....	xi
Why This Book?.....	xv
Why Me?	xvii
Why Now?	xix
A Note about Language, Style, and Audience.....	xxiii
1. What Is Racism and How Do We Talk about It?	1
Racism Is an Actual Conspiracy	2
What Is Racism?	4
There Is No Such Thing as “Reverse Racism”	11
Further Reading	18
2. What Does It Mean to Be White?	19
Whiteness as a Social Construct	25
Whiteness as Normative	29
Whiteness as Property	36
White Fragility and Rage	42
Further Reading	48
3. Racism Is a White Problem	51
Why Doesn’t Anything Seem to Change?	53
The Role of White Power	58
Popular Culture, Media, Society	63
Socialization and Implicit Bias	68
Further Reading	71

4. Systems, Structures, and Institutions	73
What America Is and Is Not	76
Racial Profiling and Police Brutality	82
Mass Incarceration	88
Racism and the Catholic Church	92
Further Reading	102
5. What Does the Catholic Church Teach about Racism?	105
Vatican II and Papal Teaching	107
Global Perspectives	114
Statements from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops	120
Proposals for Anti-Racist Church Leadership	131
Further Reading	136
6. How to Be More of an Ally and Less of a Problem	139
Recognize the Significance of Your Social Location	141
Relearn What You Thought You Knew	146
Develop a Spirituality of Ongoing Conversion	153
Further Reading	156
7. Where Do We Go from Here?	157
At the Personal and Family Level	160
At the Local Level	164
At the National Level	168
The Urgent Call of Now	171
Acknowledgments	173
Notes	177