

Contents

Acknowledgments	7
Introduction	10
January—The Road of Life	18
A new year is an opportunity to pause on our road of life. We can look back and see where we have been, notice how far we have come, and refresh our dreams and hopes as we set out once more on the journey.
February—Dry Bones	34
The experience of “dry bones” happens in most people’s lives at one time or another. This chapter invites us to believe, as Ezekiel did, that God can bring our dry bones together into a dance of life.
March—Leaning on God	48
We have a wonderful shelter in God whose heart always welcomes us. God offers us sustenance and strength during the times when we are too weak to stand alone.
April—Watered Gardens	64
The spring earth must be turned over to receive the life-giving rains. So, too, our hearts need to be opened up to receive the gifts of spiritual growth.
May—A Rushing Wind	78
There is a mystery and an energy in the wind. This image of the Spirit of God is one of a life-power within us. The energy of God’s Spirit is an element of transformation in our lives.
June—Seeking and Finding	92
We continually seek our inner source whom we often cannot name. All the while we seek, we are being sought by the one we are hunting. Once in a while we catch a glimpse of our inner source, our home, and are consoled.

July—The Playground of God	106
God dances among us and calls us to appreciate and enjoy life. Many adults miss this part of the spiritual journey because they have lost their inner child. As we find our inner child we find a source of contemplation.
August—Hearts on Fire	122
The dance of God is a passionate one, kindling and transforming souls with the fire of the Divine. If we can welcome the fire of God we will be filled with a passion for truth and justice.
September—Instruments of God	138
The song of God is the music of divine love. It plays uniquely through each person's life and work. This song seeks to dance through the human spirit and touch the world with love.
October—The Falling Leaves	152
Every radical autumn event of our lives is a summons to a more complete transformation of our inner selves. The falling leaves also remind us of our human mortality and the final surrender that will be ours.
November—Faithful Love	168
It is not easy to love generously. There is always a price to pay for being faithful. We can learn much about this from our God of enduring love.
December—Homecoming	182
Advent is a season of exiles. Each of us has our own inner exile where we wait in darkness. We join with the exiles of Babylon and hear the comforting call of God to come home where there is light and peace.
Appendix—Suggested Scripture Passages for Daily Prayer	196
Notes	220